

First Baptist Church of Pinehurst May Newsletter 2009

Gauge and Gavin Phillips, grandsons of Darlene Lantz, would like to extend to the church family an invitation to celebrate the marriage of their parents, "Brandi Diane Lantz and Todd Harrison Phillips". The wedding will take place here at our church Saturday, May 30th at 5 pm with a reception following at the Hampton Inn & Suites located behind Best Buy. We would love to have you celebrate with us!

Operation Inasmuch had 61 workers and helped out at 14 locations.

Annie Armstrong Easter Offering

During the month of April, we have emphasized this mission offering. Our Southern Baptist Convention is supporting over 5,500 missionaries serving in the United States and Canada through this special offering. If you missed the opportunity to give, you may still do so by contacting the church office and getting the designated offering envelope. So far, we have raised $3,209.00.

Sunday School Emphasis

During the month of May, we will be emphasizing the study of God's Word. Specifically, we will be encouraging participation of this study through our Sunday school. If you have not gotten plugged into a Sunday school class this would be an excellent time to join in. We are planning on starting a couple of new Sunday school classes for adults in the near future. If you have any questions about this, please feel free to ask Pastor David, or Martha Owen, our Sunday school superintendent.

Baby Dedication Service

We will be having a baby dedication service on Mother's Day, May 10th. If you have a young child that you would like to have dedicated on this day, please contact the church office or Pastor David.

National Day of Prayer

Thursday, May 7th is National Day of Prayer. I would encourage all of our people to find time that day for a special time of prayer. If you would like to take part in a prayer request event here at the church on that day, please contact Pastor David about your willingness to be a part of that event here at the church.

Vacation Bible School

There will be a VBS planning meeting May 17th at 4:30 pm.

Attention Golfers

The Monday evening golf is starting June 1st at Southern Pines Golf Club at 5:30 pm and will run through August. Cost is $14 for 9 holes (cart included). Any questions, please contact Kevin. No sign up needed – just show up at the course.
